HEALTH ROUTINE FOOD PROPOSAL AND QUOTATION

Health Routine Food is a multi-exporting and local product supplier with over 8 years' experience in exportation of Local organic products and it is a subsidiary of Ytech Plus Consult Limited. We export many local products and Shea Butter is one of them. Health Routine Food (HRF) also specializes in healthy life style like healthy food and meals, clothing and skin care. We have a blog that disseminate information on importance of food and skin care and it can improve healthiness and wealthiness.

Health Routine Food (HRF) Shea butter is your top choice for 100% organic, chemical-free, and unrefined skincare from Kwara State, Nigeria. Our Shea butter is extracted solely from the seeds/kernel of the African local Shea, ensuring its authentic and natural qualities. Crafted in our factory in Africa, we take pride in producing premium local Shea butter, which is then carefully exported to our storage facility in the United States. This meticulous process guarantees that you receive the finest Shea butter available.

Experience the remarkable benefits of our Shea butter! It works wonders for your skin by enhancing moisture levels and possessing powerful anti-inflammatory properties, effectively soothing skin concerns. Additionally, it features antioxidants with anti-aging effects, promoting a youthful and radiant complexion. Rich in fatty extracts and essential nutrients, our Shea butter nourishes your skin, leaving it healthy and revitalized.

We are equipped to fulfill large orders, with the capacity to deliver up to 100 tons of Shea butter monthly or 20 foot container. Choose HRF Shea butter for an extraordinary skincare experience that combines nature's goodness and quality craftsmanship. Your skin deserves nothing but the best! You may have received multiple quotations from different sellers but what separate us from the rest is that we always supply directly from the source (freshly made) which will give you high quality Shea butter. Our customers always appreciate the quality of our product and depth of communication we provided to our clients.

Our Trial order is 10 Metric Tonnes and 1 Tonne = 1000 Kg.

We look forward to hearing back from you.
